Reviews on Recent Clinical Trials publishes frontier reviews on recent clinical trials of major importance. Topics covered include: important Phase I – IV clinical trial studies, clinical investigations at all stages of development and therapeutics. The journal is essential reading for all researchers and clinicians involved in drug therapy and clinical trials.